Down By The Boardwalk Was A Fun Place To Be

Re-printed with permission from Blacktie-Colorado

Under the boardwalk, down by the sea, on a blanket with my baby, that's where I'll be.

It was the place to be Thursday, May 17 as The Alliance of Professional Women hosted their 5th Annual Fundraiser to benefit the Alliance Foundation.

It was a night for games of chance, carnival games and lots o' food and & drink for those who attended this festive event. The Marco Polo Room at the Curtis Hotel in downtown Denver was transformed into a boardwalk with carnival games, gambling tables complete with fun money, popcorn, pretzels and cotton candy.

Even the tables filled with silent and live auctions items had a bright and colorful touch. Guests caught a glimpse of themselves in the fun mirrors as they entered the room. Then one could stroll up one side of the boardwalk to play Ring-A-Rascal, Tip the Clown or a few other games. And then stroll down the other side to play a little poker or 21. Something for everyone. There was plenty of food, fun and drink.

Guests got to try a signature martini created by the Curtis Hotel just for the Alliance as they chatted, dined and looked over a sea of silent auction items. There were a number of live auction items such as a golf getaway in Mexico, a wine tasting for 10 guests, a 6-day African Safari, private golf lessons with a new set of clubs and a couple of very nice downtown Denver packages, to name a few.

Darla Funk and Lisa Austin have a little fun on the boardwalk.

Jessica Lynch, left, Dana Lynch and Sheryl Williams are just getting started on a fun evening.

Alliance Foundation Teams Up With TIAW and BoldeReach for 2007 Village Bank Fundraiser

The Alliance Foundation is excited to team up with BoldeReach, a women's organization out of Boulder, for our 2007 Village Bank Fundraiser. Each year, BoldeReach selects a non-profit organization(s) to support and this year it is microcredit. Their 2007 Gala benefits Friendship Bridge, TIAW and our Village Bank program through TIAW.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 6, 2007.

The Gala will be held at a fabulous private home in Pinebrook Hills outside of Boulder. This expansive home is perched high among the rocks, with gorgeous vies of Boulder below. It features a waterfall cascading among natural Colorado sandstone boulders in the atrium and wonderful architectural details throughout. We know that everyone is asking...BOULDER? Once you see this home, you will know why (You can checkout some of the photos of the home at www.boldeReach.org and click on past galas). AND we are going to reserve a couple of buses to pick us up and ferry us to Boulder in style (and more importantly back to Denver).

As you may remember back in November the Nobel Peace Prize was awarded to PROFESSOR MUHAMMAD YUNUS and the Grameen Bank for their work on alleviating poverty around the world through microcredit. Microcredit and our Village Bank program is one of the two programs we support through The Alliance Foundation. In the past five years, we have successfully opened Village Banks in seven countries and have helped hundreds of women build a better live for themselves and their families.

Your attendance at this event will help us continue to help women who live on less than $2 a day.

It is a one-of-a-kind event that you don't want to miss. Look for more information soon. Mark you calendars for this fabulous event!

Down By The Boardwalk Was A Fun Place To Be

After the fun and games, KATHLEEN BOWEN, an Alliance Foundation board member and sponsor, took the stage to welcome everyone and introduced SUZANNE SANCHEZ, President for The Alliance of Professional Women. Suzanne introduced and thanked each of the event sponsors. Then SHARI LUTZ, President of the Alliance Foundation, spoke about the foundation and their Scholarship and Village Bank Programs.

Then auctioneer CATHY HALL KEYS took the stage to get the live auction started. When the last of the fabulous live items where bid on, it was time to get down to some serious entertainment. STEPHANIE MCHUGH, a 2007 funniest mom in America contestant for Nick at Nite, had the crowd laughing out loud with her comical versions of "divorced and dating adventures of a single-mom" humor. And if that wasn't enough, the crowd got a second wave of laughter from RUBI NICOLAS, who was the 2006 Nick at Nite's Funniest Mom in America 2. These were two seriously funny moms.

And with that, it was time to shake off the sand, gather up carnival prizes and head home with memories of fun under the boardwalk. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Alliance Foundation, whose mission is to help women and girls in the community and around the world achieve self-sufficiency and economic independence. The Alliance Foundation is dedicated to supporting women both locally and globally and have created two programs to achieve these goals. The Scholarship Program helps women in the community achieve their dreams of completing their education to create a better life for themselves and their families. The Village Bank program targets the poorest of the poor, women who live on less than $2 a day, by extending small loans for them to start or expand a business.

"Fitness Walking"

by Jo Ann Taylor

Women have to be smart when they are walking outside. Taking a few extra precautions can reduce the chances of becoming a victim of a crime. Here are a few tips:

- Stay Alert - Be aware of the entire environment around you.
If you wear headphones, keep the volume low enough that you can hear what's going on around you.
- ALWAYS walk facing traffic.
- Avoid isolation - Walk in areas where there are other people.
- Tell someone where you will be walking and when you will be back.
- Carry identification and don't wear jewelry.
- Carry a noisemaker such as a whistle or personal alarm.
- Best of all — Walk with a Friend!

"Did You Know?"

Side Walk!

Walking sideways burns 78 percent more calories than walking forward. Lateral motion takes extra effort by putting your body to work in unfamiliar ways.

Walk Away From Trouble

A study done at the University of Pittsburgh found that post-menopausal women who had walked regularly for more than a decade, avoided heart disease, falls, hospitalization and surgeries far more successfully than their inactive peers.

Do You Have A Need For Speed?

Quick! Check out this web site: www.racewalk.com

A Walker's Motto

Always be prepared. Keep a pair of your old walking shoes in your car. You never know when you'll have the opportunity to squeeze in a 10-minute walk.

Why Weight?

A weight gain of 11 to 18 pounds increases your risk of heart disease by 25%. More than 25 pounds increases your risk by 200% - 300%!

Step'n Out!

The average person takes 9000 steps each day. In a lifetime that is 3.5 trips around the Earth.

New Soles!

Your walking shoes should be replaced about every 500 miles. Special tip: Buy two pair of shoes to walk in. Wear one pair to walk in regularly and wear the other pair just on Sundays. When you begin to feel the difference between the two pair of shoes, it's time to buy a new pair. Now use your previous Sunday pair for your regular walks and your new shoes as your Sunday pair.

Head For The Hills!

To increase body toning, cardiovascular fitness and calorie burn, walk uphill.

Man's and Woman's Best Friend

Does your dog insist you take her (or him) for a walk? Look for a retractable leash. It can help free up your arms so you can keep pumping them, and that will help you get as much or more benefit from your walk as Fefe (or Fido)!

Keep on Walkin'

About 80% of hospital admissions are the result of bad health habits such as leading a sedentary lifestyle. Don't let yourself or some one you love become a statistic. Get up, out and walking!

A Good Idea

Freeze your water bottle. It will melt slowly while you walk so you'll have a constant supply of cold, refreshing water.

More work, less play?

Since 1970, working Americans have seen their leisure time drop from 26 to 17 hours per week. A Walking Vacation is a perfect way to fill this precious time. We make all the plans! You sit back and relax!

Don't be a statistic!

25% percent of people who start an exercise program quit the first week. Another 25% quit within the first six months.

Roughing it!

Walking on a rough but level track requires 50% more energy than walking on a paved road.

In The Fast Lane! Do you know how fast you are walking?

To get a close estimate, count the number of steps you take in one minute and divide by 30. For an example, if you take 120 steps you would be walking about 4 mph.

Fight The Fat!

Blend equal portions of nonfat yogurt with your favorite salsa for a fat-free, low-calorie dressing for salads, chicken and fish.

A Little Bit Goes A Long Way

Your risk of heart disease, high blood pressure, cancer and diabetes can be reduced just by taking the dog for a walk, climbing the stairs, or by sweeping the driveway.

More training tips and advice can be found at www.walkingconnection.com

Wise Women Communications Receives Silver Peak Award

Wise Women Communications, an Alliance of Professional Women corporate member, recently received a Silver Peak award from the Colorado Chapter of the American Marketing Association for the direct marketing campaign it created for Play! Stay! & More (PSM), a full-service facility in Brighton that provides daycare, boarding, grooming and training for dogs and cats. Working closely with PSM, WWC created six oversized postcards. The cards were very humorous, with each card focusing on a product or service provided by PSM. The images were very whimsical and the text was amusing. Each card also included a call to action and information on how to contact PSM.

In addition to designing the direct mail campaign, WWC provided full-scale marketing support to PSM, including the creation of a logo, brand identity, Web site, advertising, building signage and tri-fold brochure. WWC is a corporate partner of APW, providing ongoing public relations support.

Welcome!

It is with great pleasure that we introduce to you our 3rd son, SETH TAYLOR CARR, born on Wednesday, July 4th at 4:55PM weighing in at 8 lbs 15 oz and 21 inches long. Jonah is thrilled to be a big brother and wants to hold Seth and kiss him and take him with him everywhere he goes. Wyatt says, "Baby" but doesn't realize that you can't quite climb right onto Seth to get a better look, so we're working on being gentle. Seth looks quite a bit like both Jonah and Wyatt when they were born, so we're going to have three brothers, all within four years of one another, who look quite a bit alike.
